THE ROBINSONS' TRIAL.

Evidence Against the Young Couple Charged with Murder.

BOTH OF THEM SHOT LAWYER GIBBS

According to the Testimony of Bert Snyder, the Couple Acknowledged Their Crime to Him and Gave a Detailed Account of the Tragedy.

BUFFALO, March 15.—At the trial of Mr. and Mrs. Robinson yesterday for the murder of Lawyer Gibbs there was a scramble for admission and the same eagerness to see the prisoners, Sadie, of course, being the center of attraction. The most important witness was Bert Snyder, the Cleveland man who was in the thick of Robinson's Cleveland troubles.

Witness said he had known Sadie since she was an infant, but had met Clarence for the first time last summer. On that occasion Sadie and Clarence had a talk, and finally Clarence, who had his mustache blackened and a towel about his head, placed two pistols at Sadie's head and said, "Throw up your hands!"

Robinson then said: "That's the way we did the Buffalo man up."

Then slowly Mr. Quackenbush dragged the story out, how Clarence and Sadie had told of meeting Gibbs in Delaware avenue; how they had attacked him, and when Gibbs struck at him with an umbrella or cane he shot him and then Sadie shot him.

"Did Clarence tell you how they were dressed that night?" "Yes," Sadie had on one of Clarence's suits. He had a hamper-bag and she had an American bulldog."

Mr. Quackenbush showed witness the two guns, which were identified as the ones shown to witness by Clarence at Cleveland.

"What did Mrs. Robinson say of Clarence at Cleveland?" "She said he was a professional crook. When he was showing how to hold people up he had his coat buttoned up about his neck and his hat pulled down over his eyes."

"Did they tell you what they did after they shot Gibbs?" "Yes. They said they ran and Sadie ran through a barbed wire fence, and in so doing tore a triangular hole in the trousers she wore that night."

Judge Hardesty took the witness and proceeded to put him through a searching cross examination. He succeeded in getting him to testify that he was not able to swear that the revolvers produced were those Robinson had at Cleveland, or that they were revolvers, but did not materially weaken the witness' testimony. The witness identified a pair of pants produced as those worn by Sadie, but they were shown to have two distinct tears. Instead of one, as had been positively sworn to by the witness.

The next witness was Detective Duran, of the Cleveland force, the man who discovered the first hole. He told of the arrest of Robinson in Cleveland on a charge of burglary and how Sadie had told a rambling story of a man being beat up and shot in Buffalo by a man named Flannigan. Witness went to see Flannigan and Snyder, who were both in jail on a charge of burglary, and got a story of the shooting of Gibbs, in which the Robinsons were made the guilty parties.

The next statement got out of Sadie was to the effect that Clarence had done the shooting. The statement was shown to Clarence, and the latter thereupon denied that he had done the shooting, and had placed the blame upon his wife, saying that while he was holding Gibbs up Sadie had fired the fatal shot. "Clarence," said the witness, "was very anxious to know whether Sadie had made the statement for the purpose of getting rid of him, for she might be free to go off with some other man."

A Dishonest Tax Collector Arrested. CONCORD, Mass., March 15.—Charles W. Sanford, ex tax collector of this place, was arrested yesterday for embezzlement. In the district court he was bound over in $1,000 for the June term of the superior court at Cambridge. Sanford disappeared some time ago, and on investigation one of the principal books was missing, and it was found he was a defaulter to the amount of $15,000. His wife refused the money, and Sanford returned to his home.

Convict Harris Recaptured. WILMINGTON, Del., March 15.—William Harris, one of the three men who escaped from New Castle jail on Monday morning, was captured yesterday at his home in the northern part of this city. He told the officer who arrested him that he "could not stand prosperity." William Dutton, another of the gang, was captured last night. Collins, the third jail breaker, is on his way to New York.

Killed by a Falling Wall. PITTSBURG, March 15.—While engaged in tearing down the old Merchants and Mechanics' bank building one man lost his life and three others were injured. The center wall on the second floor was tottering, and the men were endeavoring to remove it when it fell, crushing Patrick Killen's skull and killing him instantly, dislocating Michael Scanlon's hip, breaking Patrick Malloy's leg and seriously injuring another man.

To Arrest Indiana Legislators. INDIANAPOLIS, March 15.—Myron D. King, the governor's private secretary, who was injured in the riot at the house of representatives Monday, is no better. The authorities say that the men who were conspicuous in the riot are well known, and are not likely to leave the state. It is understood that warrants will be issued within twenty-four hours. The custodian bill, over which the riot occurred, is still missing.

Terribly Injured by a Premature Blast. GREENSBORO, Pa., March 15.—William Welsh, John McAndrews and Samuel Simpson, employed at the Donnelly mines, were terribly injured by a premature explosion while blasting coal. Welsh and Simpson were fatally hurt, and were taken to the hospital at Connellysburg.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

Much Time Wasted in a Discussion of Fish Baskets.

HARRISBURG, March 15.—Almost the entire morning session of the house yesterday was given up to useless debate on the "fish basket" question. The bill under consideration authorizes the erection and maintenance of fish baskets in rivers for the catching of eels between Sept. 1 and Nov. 15. The bill finally passed second reading. The Hicks bill providing that none but citizens of the United States shall be employed in any capacity on public buildings or public work also passed second reading. Mr. Kunkel's bill creating a game commission also went through.

Among the bills introduced was one by Mr. Moore of Chester, providing that all public school directors' associations in the state shall elect annually not more than five delegates to a state public school directors' association, to meet at Harrisburg on the second Wednesday of October. Mr. Pascoe of Lehigh introduced a bill for the organization of paid or partly paid fire departments in cities of the third class.

In the senate a long list of nominations was sent in by the governor, and promptly confirmed. The most important of these were those of Theodore B. Stubb and Henry C. Boening, for health officer and quarantine physician of Philadelphia, respectively. Among the bills introduced was one by Mr. Kennedy of Allegheny, requiring public schools to be managed and conducted by citizens educated in them.

By Mr. McQuown of Clearfield, creating the office of deputy attorney general, at a salary of $3,000. Senate adjourned until Monday at 9 p. m.

Mother and Daughter Killed by Robbers. GREENSBORO, Pa., March 15.—Saturday last Mrs. Collins and her daughter started to walk from Mammoth mine to Mount Pleasant, where they intended to purchase tickets for Hungary. They had $500 in their possession when they left Mammoth. On Wednesday the bodies of both mother and daughter were found concealed in a brush heap at the roadside. They had been robbed and frightfully beaten. It is supposed that they were followed and assaulted by two Hungarians. The suspected men have disappeared. The husband and father of the murdered woman was killed in a mine disaster at Mammoth some time ago.

Stole a Police Patrol Wagon. BROOKLYN, March 15.—John Hayden, of Sheepshead Bay, was locked up in a sub-precinct station yesterday charged with assault, intoxication and grand larceny. He was arrested while he was driving the horse and patrol wagon belonging to the police station. Hayden said that he had been to a party with a number of women. Hayden volunteered to get a vehicle to take them home, and went to the stables of the police station at Twenty-first street and took the wagon. He said it was loaned to him, but the policemen say that they never saw the man.

Serious Railroad Smash in Nova Scotia. AMHERST, N. S., March 15.—A serious smash up occurred on the International railway here. The Canadian Pacific express, with a large number of passengers on board, telegraphed with a Colonial freight, and the cars were piled up indiscriminately, several being completely demolished. Some of the dead cars were thrown against a building with such force as to smash in the whole side and end of it. Although there were many narrow escapes, none of the passengers were hurt. Some of the train hands sustained slight injuries.

Mrs. Lease's Legal Victory. TORONTO, Kan., March 15.—Mrs. Mary Lease, orator and politician, has won her latest fight. Recently George A. Clark was appointed by Governor Merrill to succeed her as a member of the state board of charities, and the appointment was confirmed by the senate. When Clark attempted to take the office, a few days ago, Mrs. Lease refused to vacate, stating her term did not end till 1896, and she took steps to have her case settled in court, which sustains her claim.

Japanese Soldiers Retreated. YOKOHAMA, March 15.—The Eleventh Japanese regiment met a thousand Chinese soldiers in a skirmish on the morning of March 11. The Chinese retreated. Then a further body of the enemy attacked the Japanese in the rear. Stubborn fighting followed, lasting all day. The Chinese maintained their ground, and at sunset the Japanese returned to their quarters at Chang Kwang. The enemy's loss was seventy men.

Arrest of a Montreal Broker. MONTREAL, March 15.—James O'Brien, of the firm of M. Reddy & O'Brien, stock brokers, has been arrested on the charge of obtaining $20,000 from the Quebec bank under false pretenses. O'Brien was bailed out by his father, the retired millionaire clothing manufacturer, on a $10,000 bond. The brokerage firm are understood to be in difficulties, with obligations of about $100,000. Three or four other brokers will be involved.

Rhode Island Weavers May Strike Again. PROVIDENCE, March 15.—The weavers of the Olneyville mills have been notified that a new schedule of wages will go into effect Monday next. Several secret meetings have been held, and it has been decided to call a general strike if a demand for a return to the old schedule, which they have made, is not granted. The manufacturers state that the cut down is imperative.

Immigration Statistics. WASHINGTON, March 15.—The number of immigrants arriving in this country during February, 1895, was 9,008, against 9,693 during February, 1894. For the last eight months the total was 136,129, as against 139,129 during the same period last year.

Only the Flag of Our Union. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 15.—The committee on federal relations of the house made a favorable report on Mr. Kaiser's bill to prohibit the raising of any public building in this state of any flag save the Stars and Stripes.

RETICENCE AT WALSBURG

Difficuly in Locating the Men Who Lynched Five Italians.

PUEBLO, Colo., March 15.—A warm wind at Walsburg yesterday melted the snow very rapidly and dried the earth so that searching parties again set out to hunt for the two Italians killed by the mob Tuesday night, of whom no trace has yet been found. Quiet signs, but the extreme closeness of the trees that has characterized everybody in Walsburg and House since the mob did its fatal work still continues. There is no doubt but that a very considerable number of people know thoroughly well who did the killing, but they know too well.

Walsburg has for years been a rather hard town, with an element that occasionally shows its teeth and uses its guns. These men are of a more or less prominence, and as it is believed they did the work, no one dares to say so or acknowledge any cognizance of the participants for fear of being himself used as a target.

Notorious Bob Ford, slayer of Jesse James, ran a dance hall in the town of Walsburg for several years. Six of his pals from that place are now in the state prison for various crimes, but others are still on hand.

Walsburg is a hamlet of about 1,000 people, with coal mines and miners at her doors on every side, and the turbulent element is therefore large, and especially since the strike of last summer, after which many miners who were steady and had accumulated some property moved away.

SPAIN'S MISSING WAR VESSEL.

Still No Definite News Regarding the Reina Regenta's Fate.

MADRID, March 15.—Several British warships have left Gibraltar in search of the missing Reina Regenta. One report current here is that she was found by a British vessel in a disabled condition off the African coast.

In the chamber of deputies, replying to questions, Prime Minister Sagasta said that telegrams announcing the wreckage of vessels at various places along the coast had been received, and that, though the government had no positive news regarding the Reina Regenta beyond the fact that she had sailed from Tangier, he feared that the vessel had been lost.

The belief, which is hourly growing stronger, that the vessel will never again be heard from, has created a feeling of consternation throughout the country. In Cadiz and Carthage, where most of the crew belonged, the excitement and anxiety is intense.

Slaughtered by Gold Prospectors. YANCOVER, B. C., March 15.—The Miowera brings an account from the distant gold fields of western Australia of the arrest of a band of prospectors who claim to have found a hill containing large quantities of gold. They left Coolgardie on Dec. 1. A few weeks ago Dr. Robertson, one of the prospectors, returned and confessed to the police that after discovering the gold they found that a party of blacks had stolen their provisions. The prospectors pursued them to their village, and butchered the entire encampment, shooting the men, women and children. All the murderers have been arrested.

Decided Against M. Coquelin. PARIS, March 15.—The civil court, before which was tried the action of the Comedie Francaise against M. Coquelin, growing out of the latter's engaging with Sarah Bernhardt, has decided against M. Coquelin, who was condemned by the court for breach of contract to pay 500 francs every night he performed any stage other than that of the Comedie Francaise. He was also condemned to pay the costs of the action. The court reserves the right to pass a fresh judgment after thirty nights. M. Coquelin will appeal from the decision.

Decided Against a Labor Union. FORT WAYNE, Ind., March 15.—The Street Railway Employees' union some time ago made complaint against the Citizens' street railway of this city, claiming an employee had been discharged for belonging to a labor union, which is against the state law. Yesterday Judge O'Rourke sustained a motion to quash the indictment. The judge holds the statute unconstitutional, but defective in wording and construction. The decision, if sustained, makes the state law inoperative and void.

A Long Boycott Ended. BUNNETT, Mass., March 15.—The fight which has been in progress for over three years, between the Buve Crawford company, shoe manufacturers, and the American Federation of Labor has been ended, and the boycott has been sent out announcing that the national boycott has been lifted. The trouble began in the fall of 1891, in the last department of the factory, when the men refused to last 115 pairs a day.

Li Hung Chang's Instructions. SHANGHAI, March 15.—It is reported that Li Hung Chang, the Chinese peace envoy, has been instructed to consent to the payment of an indemnity and the cession of the territory already occupied by the Japanese, in addition to the Island of Formosa. He is also instructed to consent to the surrender of the remainder of the vessels belonging to the Chinese southern squadron, which is now hiding at Nankin.

Massachusetts' Senior Justice Dead. WORCESTER, Mass., March 15.—Judge P. Emory Aldrich, senior justice of the supreme court of Massachusetts, died at his home on Elm street, this city, at 11:15 last night, after an illness of two weeks, aged 82. He was mayor of Worcester in 1882.

Three Mine Workers Killed. WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 15.—Richard Laverich was killed, and Thomas Condon and John Gatski fatally injured by an explosion of gas in Malby mine yesterday. Martin Burke lost his life by being struck by a runaway car in Woodward mine.

Kurdish Kidnappers Killed. CONSTANTINOPLE, March 15.—Advices received here from Moosh show that two Kurds, who were pursued for having abducted an Armenian girl, were overtaken by their pursuers and killed.

WORKING UNDER GUARD.

Everything Peaceful Along the New Orleans Levee.

NO WHITE SCREWMEN AT WORK.

The Negroes, However, Continue Their Labors Under Military Protection, Which Protection Will be Continued Indefinitely, Says Governor Foster.

NEW ORLEANS, March 15.—The stormy scenes along the river front of New Orleans has been succeeded by a calm, and something approaching the normal condition of affairs has been restored. Work was resumed on the wharves yesterday, at least partially, but it was only the colored screwmen who took up their tools, and then only under the protection of an armed guard. Where there were no troops there was no work. The white screwmen held aloof, preserving a sullen, threatening silence, but none made a movement which would cause the militia to use force to suppress it. Though still strained, the situation is much improved. Governor Foster is still in the city, and has announced his determination to remain here until the trouble is finally settled. Negotiations are in progress which may produce this happy result, but the outcome cannot be predicted at present. Meanwhile the state authorities are taking no chances.

Stationed along the river front at intervals were pickets of police, mounted and dismounted, who were under orders to co-operate with the troops, and who seemed to be in hearty sympathy with them. Occasionally crowds gathered at one point or another, and the police were called on to disperse them, which they did without trouble. Not a shot was fired at any point nor was there any violence. The negro screwmen went to work without hesitation wherever troops were stationed. They also started to work at Southport during the morning, but as neither militia nor police were on duty there they soon abandoned the work, though there was no prospect of trouble.

At 5:30 p. m., the screwmen had all finished their day's labor and the troops were withdrawn and ordered to report again at 8 o'clock this morning.

Referring particularly to the calling out of the troops, the governor said last evening it was very unfortunate that it had become his duty to use such harsh measures, but there did not appear to him, and to many others, any other practical and effective plan to adopt. His excellency reiterates his statement that, no matter what happened, he would protect the lives of citizens and commerce at this port at any cost.

"This step was decided upon," said the governor, "after every phase of the situation had been thoroughly considered by the police board and other bodies. It was almost the unanimous opinion of the board that it was the only thing to do. Although everything is now quiet on the levee, there is still no assurance of safety felt by the laborer as he goes about his work under existing circumstances, in the absence of competent protective forces; therefore, for the present, it is quite necessary to keep the soldiers on duty."

"How long do you expect, governor, to maintain military vigilance?" "I cannot say, but as long as may at all seem necessary."

Governor Foster is quite unwell, and just able to be up, but will remain here if his health is no worse until all trouble has subsided and confidence has been restored.

Millions of Fish Frozen. FORT WORTH, Tex., March 15.—Careful estimates place the amount of fish killed by the February freezing in the shallow bays on the Texas coast south of the mouth of the Brazos river at 35,000 tons. The shore has been lined with 35,000 carcasses for a month, and it is thought that most of the red fish spawn and young are killed.

Six Saved, Three Drowned. SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—Among the passengers who arrived on the steamer from Australia are Captain N. P. Sjogren, of the American bark Sarah S. Ridgeway, his wife and four of the vessel's sailors. The vessel, after having been dismasted in a terrible hurricane at sea, was driven on a great barrier reef off the Auckland coast and dashed to pieces. Three members of the vessel's crew were washed overboard and drowned. Captain Sjogren, his wife and four surviving sailors put to sea in a small boat, and after three days they effected a landing on Lady Elliot Island, whence they were taken to Sydney.

Chicago's Alleged Boodle Aldermen. CHICAGO, March 15.—Direct charges of boodling are made against numerous city aldermen in the amended pleadings filed yesterday in the suit to have the sweeping Ogden Gas and Cosmopolitan electric franchises annulled. The amended pleadings charge explicitly that the aldermen voting "yes" on the ordinances had been promised "pecuniary advantage" for their votes. The bill has caused a sensation in political circles, and the investigation of the charges promises to be exceedingly interesting.

Exhibited a Nude Model. PHILADELPHIA, March 15.—Considerable of a sensation has been caused in art and educational circles by the dismissal of Professor Thomas Eakins from his position as lecturer on artistic anatomy at the Drexel Institute for the exhibition of a nude male model before his class of young men and young women. A protest was afterward made to President MacAlister, and the dismissal of Professor Eakins followed.

Speedy Vengeance in Georgia. FORTY-FIVE, Ga., March 15.—Wednesday afternoon Amos Gibson, a negro, criminally assaulted Mrs. Martha Waller and Miss Hunt, two respectable white women, the latter an imbecile. He was caught and taken to the woods near the scene of the crime Wednesday night and hanged to the limb of a tree, his body being afterwards riddled with bullets.

FAVORS SUNDAY OPENING.

A Prominent New York Clergyman Opposes the Present Excise Law.

NEW YORK, March 15.—Those who expected an expression of opinion on the question of Sunday opening from Mayor Strong at the mass meeting at Cooper Union last night were disappointed. The mayor sent a brief note to Dr. John Friedrichs, signed by Secretary Hedges, in which he expressed his inability to be present at the meeting or to send a lengthy letter.

More than 2,000 people were gathered in the big hall in Cooper Union when ex-Senator John G. Boyd called the meeting to order. On the southern end of the hall was a flaring poster bearing the words: "We demand a vote on the Sunday question; let the majority rule."

William Steiny was unable to preside on account of illness. Otto Kemper was chairman, and made a speech of some length against the Sunday closing law. Rev. Dr. W. S. Rainford, of St. George's church, said in part:

"I am opposed to the present excise law which closes saloons on Sunday. I am in favor of opening saloons on that day for certain hours, say from 12 midday to 10 o'clock at night." He said he believed that the opening of saloons for certain hours on Sunday would diminish law breaking. The present law, he thought, was impossible of enforcement, and its disregard began a disregard for law which was undermining for the public morals. As to this evening he said: "I need not say that this is not true of Irish and Germans alone. It is also true of a large proportion of our American population."

"I am in favor of opening the saloons on Sunday because I think such action fairer to the poor man than the working classes. Personally I believe the vast majority of men in every way are healthier and richer for not touching any alcohol. I have tried both plans myself. I am now a total abstainer. I may convince my neighbor of this truth, but I cannot force him to it."

"The only club the workingman has is the saloon. He does not go there simply to drink or to smoke, he goes to meet his friends, for he has no home in which they can meet him. You have no right to close up the workingman's club on Sunday. If you do you must close up the gentlemen's clubs."

A letter from Carl Schurz was read in which he pursued substantially the same argument as had Dr. Rainford. Dr. John Friedrichs, ex-Mayor Oakey Hall and Rev. J. H. Ryland, rector of St. Mark's church also spoke.

A Lottery Agent Arrested. WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 15.—John Wurzbarger, an alleged lottery agent, was arrested in this city yesterday, and at a hearing before the mayor was held for trial at court. It is said he did a thriving business, having customers in all parts of the United States. Hundreds of tickets in domestic and foreign lotteries were found in his office. The police estimate that the people of Wilkesbarre and vicinity paid Wurzbarger $10,000 every month. Among Wurzbarger's best customers were George A. Lohmann and ex-Banker F. V. Rockefeller, who failed two years ago, his depositors losing over $400,000. It is alleged that in the month of January Lohmann bought tickets to the value of over $2,000. When the result of the drawings became known and Lohmann found he had not drawn any of the prizes he became very despondent and a few days later committed suicide.

Suicide by Dynamite. DENVER, March 15.—Since the suicide of Ling, the anarchist in jail at Chicago, there has been no record of such a cold blooded suicide as that of Alois Foidl, an Austrian, in this city yesterday. Foidl killed himself on Logan avenue, a fashionable thoroughfare, at midday, by exploding a dynamite cartridge about an inch and a half in diameter and four inches long. The entire left side of his body was blown into fragments, pieces being scattered all about the neighborhood.

Attempt to Steal a Gold Base. KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 15.—What was doubtless an attempt to steal the $25,000 gold base of the famous Montana silver statue was frustrated here. The statue is on exhibition in the store of a local firm.

Two men who had hidden themselves in the store when it closed got so far as to wrench an iron bar off the door near where the statue stood, and were opening both doors when discovered. The men escaped.

New Orleans Mayor Acquitted. NEW ORLEANS, March 15.—Judge King submitted his decision in the impeachment proceedings against Mayor Fitzpatrick. There was some dozen charges against the mayor. He was accused of malfeasance in office, favoritism and other charges of a similar character. The decision was all in his favor, the judge finding him not guilty on each of the charges.

Governor Merrill Has a Relapse. LAUREL, Del., March 15.—Governor Merrill had a relapse Wednesday night, and was worse yesterday. His breathing is very labored, and he can lie down only for short intervals.

NUGGETS OF NEWS.

The new national reform party, now in session at Pittsburg, is unable to agree on a name.

Owing to a strike of 200 weavers at Jamestown, N. Y., 300 other hands are made idle.

The damage done to fruit in the vicinity of Vacaville, Cal., by Wednesday night's unusually heavy frost will not fall much short of $225,000.

The California state senate adopted a constitutional amendment giving women the right to vote. The amendment will now be submitted to the voters of the state.

Mrs. Cecilia Stakely, Mrs. Mary Cohitt and 19-year-old Annie Denison, sisters, are under arrest in Pittsburg for shoplifting. In their house was $20,000 worth of stolen goods.

By the collapse of a bridge over a chasm on the Valley railroad near Vicksburg, Miss., County Superintendent Edwin McGinly was killed and William Henry McGinly was hurt.

Forty Years a Missionary.

BOSTON, March 15.—A cable dispatch has just been received by the American board of foreign missions announcing the death of Rev. George Cushing Knapp, of Billis, eastern Turkey. Mr. Knapp has been a missionary in that country forty years, which have been years of service and much peril. He was once attacked by the now famous Kurdish chief and robber, Mousa Bey, who left him unconscious and bound in a ravine of the mountains.

THE ALLIANCE CASE.

Waiting for Further Details from Captain Crossman.

HUNTING UP THE PRECEDENTS.

The Case Will Probably Come Down to a Question of Veracity Between the Spanish and American Captains as to the Alliance's Distance from Shore.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—The department of state is moving with deliberation in making up its case against the Spanish government based on the firing by a Spanish cruiser at the American steamship Alliance, holding that in matters of such moment it is absolutely essential our government should be in possession of the exact facts, so as to avoid the humiliation of retraction through making a demand that could not be sustained by the evidence. So far no reply has been received at the department in response to the request made upon Captain Crossman, of the Alliance, for further particulars of the incident. In the meantime the officials are industriously looking up precedents for their guidance, and Mr. Uhl, who is still acting as secretary of state during the continued illness of Secretary Gresham, is in frequent consultation with his superior at his rooms in his hotel.

One of the precedents which has been unearthed and brought to the attention of the acting secretary as having a direct bearing upon the Alliance incident was found in the proceedings of the Alabama claims commission. In one of the decisions announced by Judge French the court held that there was no authority for the stoppage or detention of a mail steamer which is pursuing her usual route, even if that route lay at places within the three mile shore limit, and so within the maritime jurisdiction of the power seeking to stop the ship. If this is held to be sound doctrine then of course the Spanish government will make reparation for the action of its cruiser, even should it appear that the Alliance was within three miles of Cape May, as the Spanish minister here believes.

On the other hand, if this decision is not of effect then what is known as the headland theory of jurisdiction will play an important part in the adjustment of the matter. According to the contention of Great Britain in the Fortune bay fisheries case, in which the United States has acquiesced, the line of marine jurisdiction is drawn three miles from a line running across from headland to headland, in the case of a bay or a depression in the general coast line. The Spanish authorities evidently take the position at this time, in the absence of exact advice, that the Alliance was within such a line, and so within their jurisdiction, although the ship may have been actually more than three miles from the nearest shore.

Probably based on the Alabama decision above referred to, a rumor was in circulation yesterday to the effect that the state department had sent a sinister warning to the Spanish government to the effect that a declaration of war would follow a repetition of the Alliance affair. Acting Secretary Uhl said that he had no further information to give to the press than he had already given out, and taking their cue from him the officials of the state department absolutely declined to say anything about the Alliance.

From the fact that no intimation of any such precipitate action in the absence of a knowledge of the facts had been communicated to the Spanish minister here, when would certainly be the case if the usual diplomatic amenities were observed, even if such a message had been sent to the Spanish government directly through United States Minister Taylor, at Madrid, the story failed to find much credence.

Badly Hurt in an Elevated Crash. NEW YORK, March 15.—An elevated railway train on the Thirty-fourth street branch of the Third Avenue line brought up against a bumper while moving at such speed that two passengers, Melinda Fisher, aged 68 years, and Lydia Thompson, 22 years old, were badly injured. The first named is said to be hurt internally, and a bone in her right hand was broken, as was also the bridge of her nose, and she also had many contusions about the body. Owing to her advanced age she may not recover. Miss Thompson had a rib broken and sustained severe contusions about the body.

The Girty-Hale Controversy. HAVERTHILL, Mass., March 15.—Walter Scott Hale, who figured so prominently in the Parker House war of words yesterday, in which a challenge to a duel with pistols is said to have been given and accepted, is indignant over the statement made by Thomas Girty, Jr., that Hale was intoxicated, and that it was a challenge. Since then a well known business man here said: "The denial of the duel story by Girty is too good. Both parties were heated, and the story of the whole affair as given by Hale is substantially correct."

A Pennsylvania Bank Failure. DUBOIS, Pa., March 15.—The Bank of Dubois, of this place, closed its doors yesterday. The depositors are not much frightened. The stockholders are individually liable and are all rated well. The bank directors held a meeting yesterday afternoon, and gave out the meager statement that the liabilities of the bank amount to $70,000, due depositors, and the assets in loans and securities are $80,000. They assert that the bank will pay dollar for dollar.

THE WEALTH OF THE WORLD.

Great Sum of Foreign Securities Held in England and France.

The reported valuation of all property in the United States by the census of 1890 was $65,037,091,197, or $1,036 per capita for the entire population. This enumeration, however, dealt with property located in the United States and did not go into the question where it is owned. If the estimate of Mr. Robert Giffen is correct, that $5,000,000,000 in foreign capital was invested in this country in 1880, probably an even larger amount is so invested at the present time. Deduction should also be made for the high value put upon waste public lands in the census, with the not result that the per capita valuation of the United States would be reduced to about $950 or $4,750 for a family of five. Estimates made by careful economists, who come pretty near agreement among themselves, put the valuation of Great Britain about nine years ago at $50,000,000,000 and that of France at $40,000,000,000. This would afford a per capita valuation of $1,338 for Great Britain and $1,081 for France, making the valuation for a family of five $6,690 in Great Britain $5,405 in France. The figures of France are placed higher by some authors, and the total in both countries includes careful estimates of the large holdings of foreign securities, some of them covering property located in the United States.

The great holdings of foreign securities, estimated to amount in Great Britain to about $8,000,000,000, explain to a large extent the adverse balance of foreign trade constantly shown by the British statisticians. Great Britain would long ago have been denuded of her gold and become bankrupt if the excess of imports over exports shown by her trade statistics were a true measure of her financial condition. The fact that about $100,000,000 is due her annually in interest charges upon British capital placed abroad explains how she can afford to import several hundred million pounds sterling of foreign merchandise in excess of the domestic merchandise which she exports. France is estimated to hold $4,000,000,000 of foreign securities, largely Italian and Spanish, and she also has been able to show a large balance of imports of merchandise over exports during the last two decades, while piling up in the vaults of the Bank of France and distributing through her monetary circulation a larger mass of coin than any other commercial country.—United States Investor.

THE END SEAT IN THE PEW.

It is the Place Occupied by the Protector of the Family.

"It is common enough," said Mr. Gratebar, "to see a man sitting in the aisle end of a pew in church get up on the arrival of some other member of the family, step out into the aisle to let the late comer in, and then resume his seat at the end of the pew. It seems to me that I have read that this custom originated in New England in the early days, when the men all sat by the aisle so that they could seize their guns and get out promptly in case of attack by Indians. We don't have much to fear from Indians nowadays, but the seat by the aisle is still occupied by the head of the family.—He stands in the aisle while the others pass in, and then calmly takes his place in the end seat, at the head of the line, as a sort of general protector.

"Sometimes in these days, we are so very free from Indians now, the head of the family thinks it is safe for him to stay at home when he has a headache, and then the young son takes his place. I imagine that he talks it over with his mother on the way to church, so that it is all understood. When they get to the pew, he stands in the aisle while his sisters and his mother pass in. I fancy that his sisters are rather glad when they are all seated and no longer conspicuous, but upon his mother's face as she brushes past him into the pew there is a smile of affectionate pride, and then he takes his seat in his father's place and sits there with fine boyish dignity."—New York Sun.

Salt For Insanity.

A physician, in treating an insane patient, found it admirable to make use of subcutaneous injections of salt. The patient had obstinately refused all nourishment, and the salt was given as an experiment in nutrition, this treatment having been made use of some time previously. To the doctor's surprise, some of the worst symptoms of insanity disappeared. Further trials convinced the faculty of the value of this discovery, and, according to all indications, there is in this case the germ of a discovery that will entirely revolutionize the treatment of the insane. We are told that the human body consists of about a dozen elements. When these are present in too great quantity or are lacking, we are ill. The great art is to decide just what element needs regulating. When this is done, we are restored to health.—New York Ledger.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsvalley, Ind., says: "I have been in a distressed condition for three years from nervousness, weakness of the stomach, dyspepsia and indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with no relief. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which did me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely medicine; a few bottles of it have cured me completely. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world." Warrenton the most wonderful stomach and nerve cure ever known. Sold by J. E. Mills, Middletown, N. Y.

WHY THE MAMMOTHS FROZE.

Howarth's Theory With Regard to the Remains Found in Siberia.

In Howarth's book, entitled "The Mammoth and the Flood," the author advances a unique theory with regard to the remains of the mammoth, or hairy elephant, which is found in such immense numbers in Siberia. These creatures were so plentiful at one time in that country that ivory hunters found it more profitable to go there in search of that valuable article than to South Africa, where elephants are supposed to be as numerous as boulders in New York city. Howarth says that they are invariably found under conditions which make it certain that they could not have lived unless the surroundings and climate had been entirely different from those existing at present. The remains of plants upon which they fed and the southern contemporary shells which are also frequently found with the remains point to a sudden and wonderful change of climatic conditions.

If Professor Howarth's argument is to be given any weight, the Siberian plateau is one of the most recent features in the known physical geography of the world. He figures that the plateau was suddenly raised to its present height, and that, prior to its sudden elevation, it was a warm stretch of lowland furnishing pasturage to thousands of mammoth herds. The rapid elevation, according to his deductions, suddenly concealed the waters and froze the gigantic animal bodies through and through, thus preserving them intact until the present day. He says that unless these animals had been frozen immediately after death they would certainly have decayed and disappeared.

In some places, far to the east in Siberia, as well as in the mountainous regions of Alaska on our continent, the remains of the mammoth and other great extinct animals have been found at a height of 17,000 feet above sea level. Howarth and Falcony both declare this to be incompatible with their mode of life.—St. Louis Republic.

CONFIDENCES OF CLIENTS.

A Noted English Precedent Which Stamps Them as Inviolable.

"The matter of confidences between counsel and client is one of great interest and importance," said a well known jurist and ex-judge the other day.

"As to the duty of a lawyer on the trial of a case where he has been informed by his client that he is guilty, the best and most controlling example is that of Charles James Phillips, the eminent British barrister who in many directions was rated in his time as second only to Lord Erskine.

"He was defending Courvoisier, who was indicted for the murder of Lord Russell. During the trial, on the examination of a very important witness for the people, the accused was much overcome, and in the intensity of his emotion communicated either to Mr. Phillips or to his solicitor the fact that he was guilty of the crime.

"Mr. Phillips immediately asked for an adjournment of the case and for a consultation with the judges. The consultation was granted, and Mr. Phillips stated to the bench that the accused had confessed his guilt and requested the judges to point out to him his path of duty. The judges, after deliberation, stated that he would have a perfect right to make such legal and logical deductions from the evidence as he thought tended to the exculpation of the accused, but it would be unprofessional to state to the jury any personal belief of his innocence.

"In his argument to the jury Mr. Phillips, carried away by his emotions and imagination, did state to the jury his own personal belief in the innocence of his client, and this statement of his occasioned much criticism afterward."—New York Herald.

A Distinction With a Difference.

The young man had failed in securing the girl as his own for life, owing principally to the violent opposition of her paternal ancestor and a friend of his was consoling him on his loss.

"By George," he said, "I don't see what you wanted to marry that girl for."

"That's because you don't know her."

"I know her father."

"But I wasn't marrying him."

"Perhaps not, but you would have to become a member of the family."

"I could have stood that for the girl's sake."

"Well, I couldn't. Why, I had some dealings with him in a business way, and I found that he was a regular robber."

The disappointed lover sighed profoundly.

"I don't know but that you may be pretty near right on the old man," he said. "I had some dealings with him and found him a free booter."—Detroit Free Press.

Enough Pearline

has been sold to put a girdle of it round about the earth, and a good deal over.

Hundreds of millions of packages, in the last fifteen years, have made washing easy for millions of different women. This suggests a question—to the timid women who think that because Pearline saves so much work it must do some harm.

Could Pearline have been sold and used in that way and for this time, if it were dangerous? And another, addressed to all women: Isn't it better to be sure with Pearline, the original washing compound, which has been thus proved, rather than to risk it with some imitation about which you know nothing.

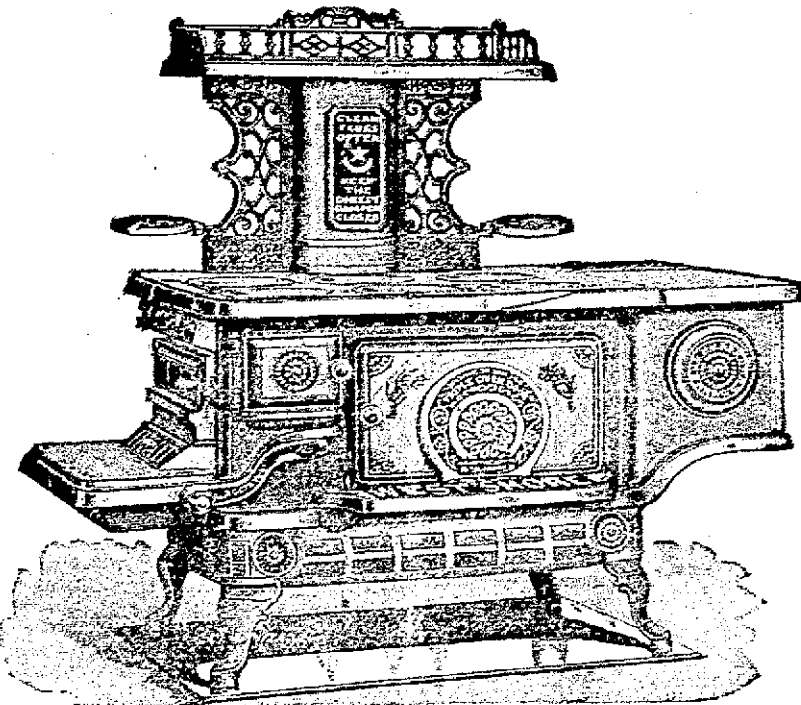

Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, be honest—send it back.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

It is excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative, effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from any objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50 cent bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

MILK PRICES AT DEPOSIT.

The New York Company's Offer Much Less Than at Johnson's.

The prices offered by the New York Condensed Milk Co., at Deposit, average ninety-five cents per 100 hundred pounds. The prices for April, May and June are the same as offered at Johnson's, but the prices for the remaining months are very much lower, 70 cents for July, 95 cents for August and $1.05 for September, as against 95 cents, $1.10 and $1.35 for the corresponding months at Johnson's. The prices were a disappointment to farmers but most of them signed, preferring a sure thing to the chances of Exchange prices. The condensery has not, however, secured a sufficient supply of milk and the contract will be left open for a few days.

TURNED OUT TO STARVE.

Brutal Treatment of a Horse that Should Be Punished.

The Montgomery Reporter says that last fall some one turned an old worn out horse into the fields along the Bogtown road and left it to care for itself. Until snow fell the poor creature got along fairly well but after the ground was covered it had to subsist on twigs and bark from trees. With the advent of the blizzard it sought shelter in an old stone house, way back from the road, and, there in trying to sustain life, the poor animal gnawed away at the woodwork of the place, eating large holes in the window sills and parts of the doors, until it literally starved to death.

TRAIN WRECKERS AT POND EDDY.

An Attempt to Wreck Passenger Train Eight Wednesday Night.

An attempt was made by some unknown person or persons to wreck Erie train 8 near Pond Eddy, Wednesday night, by placing a large piece of blue stone on the rail.

One pair of wheels of the pony trucks was thrown off and ran about 300 feet off the track, but were forced into position on the rail by the frog and guard rail. The accident caused a detention of about five minutes. No damage was done to the engine or track. There is not the slightest clue as yet to the guilty parties.

"IN OLD KENTUCKY."

The Dramatic Success of the New York Season at the Casino, To-night.

"In Old Kentucky," unquestionably the most substantial success of the past season in New York, and a play that has been received with favor everywhere, will be seen at the Casino, to-night. It deals with an interesting phase of Kentucky life. Its main strength lies in its simplicity and picturesqueness. It would not be true to its name if it did not represent a horse race in some form. This feature is said to be very realistic and effective, and shows the Lexington race track at the finish of a very spirited race between several Kentucky thoroughbred horses, who, urged on by their jockeys, make a wild dash under the wire in full view of the audience. The author is credited with having given a vivid picture of social life in Kentucky, and with the romance has woven enough thrilling incidents into the story to win the applause of those who crave for the spirited action of melodramas. He also introduces a novel feature in the shape of a genuine band of pikemen, who, to use a common expression, lend local color to the scene. The heroine is a pretty, young mountain maid, sweet, innocent, ingenuous and lovely to look upon. The scenery is all new and appropriate, representing with a rare degree of fidelity many interesting Kentucky scenes.

"In Old Kentucky" was described in New York as the best example of American melodrama seen in many years on the metropolitan stage. It will be given in this city complete in all its details and with all of the original scenery and effects which contributed so largely to its success in the metropolis. The company is said to be a very strong one.

EARLY CLOSING NEAR AN END

Stores Will Re-open Evenings After March 23d

The early closing movement will end next Friday evening, March 23d, and thereafter the midnight gloom which pervades our streets shortly after 6 o'clock, will give way to bright stores and throngs of people.

An effort was made, yesterday, to induce merchants to continue the early closing throughout the year, but opinion is so evenly divided on the subject that the early closers have abandoned the attempt, and during the busy seasons of the year, the stores will remain open in the evening.

Conditions of True Greatness.

The conditions of true greatness was the subject of the sermon preached at Grace Church, last night, by the Rev. Hubert Wells, of New York City. The sermon was short but very practical, and showed clearly that individual greatness is not only for the men who distinguish themselves by their mighty achievements in the various walks of life, but belongs to the humblest citizen who loyally responds to the "chances" or opportunities of work which God may send him.

The Ice in the Walkkill.

A channel opened in the ice below the railroad bridge at Midway Park, last night. The river is considerably above mean high water mark, and is flowing with a strong current that seems to be rapidly rotting the ice. Unless the present cold weather continues long enough to form new ice of considerable thickness, it seems likely that the ice will go out without causing trouble.

A New Organ—To Move the Church. Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—Mrs. Levi Decker and sister, Miss Jennie Buckbee, have been sick with the grip for about two weeks and do not seem to be improving. They are attended by Dr. Dennis.

—Last Sunday morning Mrs. Jay J. Smith presented the church with a handsome pulpit scarf, which is appreciated by all.

—Isaac Dillistin is confined to his bed with the grip. He also has symptoms of pneumonia. He is attended by Dr. Wolf, of Coleville.

—Will Conklin, of Port Jervis, has placed a Needham organ in the church for trial and will bring Prof. Baker, of New York, on Sunday next, to show up the organ's qualities.

—Miss Grace Ferguson returned home, Monday morning, from New York, after an absence of five weeks.

—There is some talk of moving the Baptist Church from its present site, across the street to where the Old School Baptist Church stood. It is a good idea and can be done. All it wants is for some one with a little push to take hold and go ahead. Miss Abbie Hoyt has offered to give $30 and Mr. VanInwegen says they can count on him for $10. Here is a chance for a man that understands moving buildings to get a job.

THE MOTORMAN.

S. D. Richardson, in Rochester Democrat.

A motorman was Peter Brown. An honest Mason he. For when two bells were rung on him, He sang, "so mote'er be."

Tho' not an active Methodist, He stood up every hour To keep the people on the track, Where'er he had the power.

Although his heart was ever kind To children poor and rich; He never thought to spare the rod, And often used the switch.

He was not called a lady's man, And 'twas known full well That when he stopped upon the street He waited for a bell.

His speech and manner were precise: He did not blunders make, Although within the shop, they said, He often made a fake.

He did not fear the fangs of life, No matter what their grade; Because to him, reverses were A portion of his trade.

He never despised the humble poor Or teased the wrecks of crime, He would not run on any one, Although he ran on time.

He died one day, and o'er his head They wrote this epitaph: "The trolley broke, he breathed his last Within a current jam."

And now inside the power house, When midnight chimes grow, And heard the words: "Peter Brown has gone Where he will dynamo."

Victorious Japan imposes hard terms of peace and China, beaten on both land and sea, has no alternative but to yield to all the conqueror's demands. Japan, according to a Shanghai dispatch, insists on a war indemnity of $200,000,000, payable in quarterly installments, the indemnity to be secured by customs receipts. The cession of all the territory occupied by the Japanese army and of the island of Formosa is also demanded as also the surrender of the remaining war ships of the Chinese southern fleet.

A verdict for $1,150 was rendered, yesterday, at White Plains, in favor of Dr. Schopen, of Yonkers, against Mrs. Homer R. Baldwin, who was injured and burned in a wreck on the Hudson River railroad, at Hastings, in 1891. The doctor amputated her left hand and three fingers from her right hand, cut off her ears and dug out what was left of her eyes. He also grafted skin on the parts of her head that were bare. The doctor charged for all this $3,000, and only part of the bill was paid. The jury seemed to be of the opinion that the doctor had earned his money.

AS ONE FROM THE DEAD.

A Sullivan County man supposed to be dead and whose estate was administered over ten years ago. Wants to know about his money—Writes to a Sister Who Died Ten Years Ago.

Many years ago when Messrs. Charles Horton and L. B. Clements, of this city, were members of the firm of Horton, Clements & Co., and interested in tanneries at Hortonville, Sullivan county, they had a man in their employment as teamster, named Thomas Fitzgerald. When the firm went out of business Mr. Fitzgerald had a considerable sum of money in the Middletown Savings Bank. He gave his book to Mr. Clements and went away. When he wanted money he would send Mr. Clements a check and he would draw the money and forward it.

Several remittances were made to Mr. Fitzgerald, the last one being in the early seventies when he was located in Texas and that was the last Mr. Clements heard of him until a day or two ago.

Mrs. Thomas Casey, who then lived in this city, was a sister of Mr. Fitzgerald and was entitled to a portion of the money left in the Savings Bank. About eight years after Mr. Fitzgerald was last heard from and when he was supposed to be dead, Mrs. Casey made application to the Surrogate for letters of administration upon his estate but she died in 1885 before she had closed up the business and Mr. Charles Horton took out letters de bonis non and drew the money from the bank, something less than $500 and turned it over to Mr. Clements who had been a pointed administrator of Mrs. Casey's estate and it became a part of the assets of the estate.

Several of Mrs. Casey's children were minors at the time of her death, but all but one have since become of age and recovered their share of the estate, and in July next the youngest will attain his majority.

Since the receipt of this money from Mr. Horton, Mr. Clements has thought only of Thomas Fitzgerald as one who long since passed over to the great majority, and great, indeed, was his surprise, yesterday, when he received a letter from the supposed dead man, which had been forwarded to him by Mrs. Casey's children from New York. "It came to me," said Mr. Clements, "like a message from the dead."

The letter was dated at Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 29, and was mailed March 3rd. It was addressed "Mrs. Thomas Casey, Hortonville, Sullivan county, N. Y." and had been forwarded from that place to New York.

The letter began with the announcement that the writer was still in the land of the living and made inquiries as to his health and whereabouts of various members of his family, and closed by asking how much of the money left in the bank was C. B. Horton's.

Mr. Clements, of course, has nothing to do with the settlement of the estate, but he had a very good knowledge of the extent of Mr. Fitzgerald's interest in the bank account and the estate of Mrs. Casey is practically settled.

The sum involved being small, the matter is being satisfactorily settled. The letter of the heirs of Mrs. Casey and the long promise, if he pays them the visit first named in his letter. One can readily see, however, what complications might be caused by the appearance of the supposed dead man, if a large estate was involved.

SPAIN CALLED TO ACCOUNT.

Formal Apology and Reparation Demanded for Firing on the Alliance—Further Interference With American Commerce Will Not Be Tolerated.

BY UNITED PRESS.

MADRID, March 15.—American Minister Tyler, to-day, presented a demand for an apology and reparation from Spain on account of the Alhucoba affair. Minister Tafor's action is based upon a dispatch from Secretary Gresham at Washington, yesterday, which recites the facts of the firing on the steamship Alliance by a Spanish war vessel off Cuba, and says:

"The Windward passage, where the firing occurred, is the natural highway for vessels coming between ports of the United States and the Caribbean Sea. Forcible interference with them cannot but be considered a dangerous act, and can, under no circumstances, be tolerated when no act of war exists. This government expects prompt disavowal of the act and an expression of regret on the part of Spain; and it will insist that immediate positive orders be given Spanish naval commanders not to interfere with legitimate American commerce, nor in any way to wantonly imperil life and property lawfully under American flag."

POST OFFICE BURGLARS CAUGHT.

The Supposed Robbers of the Highland Falls Office Arrested in Newburgh.

Two men, who gave their names as William Reilly and John Connors, were arrested in Newburgh, yesterday afternoon, on suspicion of being the burglars who robbed the Highland Falls post office, Wednesday night. The men were slightly intoxicated and were offering postage stamps for sale. They resisted arrest and while scuffling with the officers are supposed to have thrown away a lot of stamps, for a boy who followed the prisoners picked them up near where the arrest was made.

When searched at the station, Connors had in his pockets $7.34 worth of stamps, a loaded revolver, a combination fuse and seven dynamite cartridges.

The men were held on the technical charge of drunkenness and will be turned over to the United States authorities.

Election Expenses.

Additional statements of election expenses have been filed as follows: Dr. H. McD. Struble—Pastors $1.25. Patrick Barrett, John Green, W. H. Foster, D. C. Comings, T. W. Davey and H. R. Hoag, spent nothing.

HARDSHIPS OF AN AGED COUPLE

A 98-Year-Old Man and His Wife Sent from Place to Place by the Poor Authorities—Given a Home for the Winter at Orange Farm.

John Unlueber and wife arrived in Port Jervis on the milk train, yesterday morning, from Orange Farm, where they had been since last fall. They applied to the postmaster for help, saying they had been sent to him by Superintendent Monell, of Orange Farm.

Unlueber claims to be ninety-eight years old. He is shriveled and bent and has numerous scars which he says he received in fighting the Spaniards under the first Napoleon. His wife is probably not over fifty years old, but clings to her aged spouse with great affection.

The couple belong in Sauben county. The old man went from place to place last summer, making a living for himself and wife by cutting wood, but they finally brought up in Elmira as objects of charity. The authorities sent them on to Port Jervis and from there they were sent east, (probably to Middletown) and finally they landed in New York, where they lived in halls and alleyways for several days when they were sent to the Flatbush almshouse and soon afterwards were sent back to Port Jervis and from there to Orange Farm where Mr. Monell cared for them until he learned that they were properly charged upon Steuben county and sent them to the Port Jervis postmaster who had brought them to the county house. They were given tickets for Corning and placed on board a west bound train.

A SKELETON UNEARTHED.

Part of a Body Buried in the Old Congregational Cemetery Found by Workmen.

While at work excavating for the cellar of the addition which is to be made to Mr. Hart Davis' store, in the rear of Empire Block, workmen this morning, unearthed a human skeleton, one of the relics of humanity interred in the Old Congregational Church cemetery, of which many have been found when excavations have been made in the ground formerly occupied by the cemetery. So far as possible all the bodies were disinterred and removed to Hillside Cemetery many years ago, but many bodies resting in unmarked graves were not found at the time of the removal.

A White Kaffee Klatch.

Mrs. Geo. H. Love pleasantly entertained the Z. K. Club at her home on Houston avenue, yesterday afternoon. The decorations were beautiful and all pure white. Mesdames Schubert and Clappham, of Bloomingburgh, and Miss Lillie Kuhlman, of Ellenville, were present. This closes the club's social season.

A MAN AND STILL A BABE.

Old in Years, but a Little Child in Mental and Physical Development.—The Strange Case of the Son of Engineer
Mintram, of Pine Bush, Who Died
This Morning.

Charles E. Mintram died at the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Mintram, in Pine Bush, this morning, aged twenty-one years, six months and eighteen days.
He had been sick for five weeks, first with a gathering in the head; later with pleurisy, then erysipelas set in and finally pneumonia developed and caused his death.

Although in years and in the eye of the law a man, he was yet a babe.
He was only twenty four inches tall and proportionately developed. He could neither walk nor talk and in every respect except his years was an infant, apparently not over two years old. He had the same baby face that he had twenty years ago,
and the same little helpless body,
and required the same attentions as any other infant.

He was born in Wortendyke, N. J., and was as bright as any of the other children of the family, of whom there were nine in all, and for the first year grew and thrived well.
About this time his parents noticed that he made no attempt to walk or talk as his older brothers and sisters had done at his age, and they consulted a physician who gave the opinion that the child was only a little backward and would soon begin to develop. But time passed and while the babe increased a little in weight and stature he made no progress.

The boy had been examined by many physicians during his life, but no one was ever able to give a satisfactory explanation of his case. If there had been any physical deformity, the physicians might have been able to evolve a theory, but as it was the child was physically sound and as bright mentally as any other child at the age when development ceased, and all they could say was that, contrary to the usual course of nature,
he had ceased to develop, but why they didn't know. He was an ordinary baby then and an ordinary baby he remained all the years of his life.

No one but a mother can know the trials endured all these years by Mrs. Mintram. This babe required her constant care, yet three others came in later years to claim a share of her attention. But his utter helplessness, his dependence appealed the more strongly to her mother's heart, and his death, which by others would be regarded as a blessing to him and a relief to his family, is to her a sore bereavement, and there will always be a void in her life that cannot be filled.

Charlie was an unusually good child. He never cried unless someone spoke sharply to him and then he would act as if his heart was broken until soothed by kind words.
He would sit for hours in his little chair amusing himself with a picture book, pencil and paper or toys. He loved music passionately and would sit listening intently as long as any one would play for him. He understood all that was said to him, and like any child of his size could indicate what he wanted.

The boy had always been healthy until his last sickness and escaped most of the ills common to childhood. He had his likes and dislikes of persons and showed his affection for and appreciation of those who were kind or attentive to him.

Mr. and Mrs. Mintram have five children living and what makes the case of this one all the more remarkable is that they are all very bright, intelligent and perfect in physical development, as were three others who died several years ago. The surviving children are Emma, wife of Frank Corwin, of Matamoras, Pa.; Fannie, wife of Charles Terwilliger, of Pine Bush, and Carrie, Flora and Frank at home.

The funeral will take place, Sunday afternoon, but whether at the house or the church has not been decided.

HYMENEAL.

Hess-Maler.

Mr. Wm. Hess, a well known cigar maker, and Miss Anna, daughter of Mr. Geo. Maler, were married at the First Presbyterian manse by Rev.
Dr. Gordon at 7.30, last evening.
Miss Fannie Miller was the bridesmaid and Mr. John Herman best man.

Immediately after the ceremony the party drove to the residence of George Maler, Jr., where a wedding supper was served.
The bride is an estimable young lady, a graduate of Wallkill Academy of the class of '94.

Mr. and Mrs. Hess will go to housekeeping at No. 18 Benton avenue.

The Anous joins in the congratulations and good wishes of the friends of the young people.

Sale of a Fine Knickerbocker Mare.

Mr. Wm. Saver has sold his handsome and speedy bay mare, "Leona," to Mr. B. C. York, a well known horseman of Deep River, Conn.
Leona is 15½ hands high, aged seven years and sired by Knickerbocker.
Her dam was a Pania mare by Imp.
Glencoe, and her great dam was by American Star. Mr. York will commence training the mare at once.
The mare has no official record, but can go better than 2.40.

'GREASE' FOR ELECTION MACHINERY.

What the Expense Statements of Republican Candidates Show—A Big Fund for "Legitimate Expenses" and How It Was Raised.

Mayor Stansbury is a very practical man. He is familiar enough with machinery to know that one of the requisites and a very important one to insure proper working of the various parts is a suitable lubricant.
When he set up his political machine in this city he at once made provision for sufficient "grease" to properly lubricate all the bearings to insure as little friction as possible.
He secured it without difficulty and the machine ground its grit of city officers to his satisfaction.

Two hundred dollars of the necessary "grease" was obtained by assessing candidates for office. Twenty dollars each was the maximum, but if candidates refused to be bled to that extent a smaller sum was accepted. As will be seen by the statement of expenses already published, the candidate for City Treasurer gave $10; Mr. Cor, the would be Excise Commissioner, $5, Constable Faulner $5; Mr. Maybue for Alderman $5; Mr. Harding and Mr. Dayton for Members of the Board of Education $10 and $5, respectively; the other candidates on the educational ticket paid the full assessment of $20, as did also the candidate for Water Commissioner and Messrs.
Bastain, Close and Sinebaugh, the Republican Aldermen-elect.

Two hundred dollars is quite a liberal sum for "legitimate expenses"
in a little city election, which cost the taxpayers themselves over $1,700.
It will hire a good many carriages and workers and watch-ers at the polls.

But this wasn't all the money contributed to carry the election on Tuesday. Not only the candidates but all the office holders drawing salaries—even inspectors and clerks of election were required to put their hands deep into their pockets. Some few of the inspectors "kicked" but most of them took their medicine, knowing full well that if they didn't they need never expect a re appointment under the present party management.

When men running for offices which pay nothing in salaries and with few if any opportunities to make any money in perquisite, were required to chip in $20 towards the fund, it is only fair to presume that those holding offices that pay from $200 up to $1,000 had to "come down" handsomely and that several hundred dollars more was thus provided for "legitimate expenses;" enough in fact to have hired all the carriages in all the livery stables in Middletown and Goshen, watchers enough to more than fill all the polling places and workers enough to provide a "worker" to every
"scouter" in the city.

It was different this year from other years in, in addition to the assessment of officers and candidates, wealthy citizens who were not candidates did not contribute liberally toward the fund for "legitimate expenses" of the election.

Is it any wonder the boss's new machine worked well on election day? Is it surprising that every Republican candidate except two, and these the only two that the machine tactics could not carry through—were elected? Has not Mayor Stansbury very nearly carried out his threat to make every department of the city government Republican?
Isn't Middletown inoculated with the deadly virus of the disease that is the plague of the larger cities?
Have not Ben Odell's methods in Newburgh been too closely copied
by Middletown's Republican boss
for Middletown's good.

The only scheme of the boss that failed, last week, was that to elect John J. Cox and secure absolute control of the city through the Excise Board, a la Newburgh.

The boss did his work well, from his point of view, and is entitled to the congratulations of all who believe in such methods.

Real Estate Sales.

First Ward, who expects to build on it this summer. Price private.

—The Record and Guide, the leading real estate paper of New York city, notes the transfer on March 1th, by Luher R. Marsh and Clarissa J.
Huyler, of the four-story brick dwelling, No. 22 West Thirty-seventh street, to Anne Irving for a nominal consideration. The transfer was made subject to a mortgage for $8,000.

The Picantiny Band.

The "Woodlawn Wangdoodles," tics of the young drum major were only equalled by the excellence of the music played by the youthful musicians.

Car Off the Track.

INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN GOSHEN.

The Jolly Dozen's Clam Bake—Good Templars—Planning a Surprise—Successful Social—Other Notes of Interest.

From Our pen-as-Correspondent Regular.

—Sixteen members of the Jolly Dozen Club enjoyed a clam bake at Mr. Louis Bauer's hotel, at Phillipsburgh, last night. There were also several invited guests present from Middletown. Songs and speeches were pleasant features of the evening. The feast was prepared by Mr.
and Mrs. Bauer in fine style and was enjoyed by everyone present. There was one new member to initiate, but the ceremony was deferred until the next meeting, which will occur next month at the same place.

—Bills were posted in Goshen, yesterday, announcing the opening in Madison Square Garden, New York,
on the 28th of March, of the "Greatest Show on Earth."

—Twenty-five members of the Goshen Lodge of Good Templars attended the banquet given by Excelsior Lodge at Middletown, last night.
—A number of Goshen's young people are planning to give a surprise party to Miss Bertha Howell, of East Division.

—About $50 was realized from the social held at the residence of Dr. J.
H. Thompson, last evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Diehl entertained about thirty young people of Middletown, Wednesday night.
The occasion was an enjoyable one.

—Mr. Wm. W. Hicks, who died in Poughkeepsie, March 8th, was formerly a clerk in the store of Mr. W. A.
Clapp, of this village.

—The masquerade ball at Washingtonville, to-night, will be attended by a number of Goshen people.

—After to-day the sale of 1,000-mile books will cease at the Erie's office in this village.

EXCELSIOR LODGE, I. O. G. T.

Its Third Anniversary Fittingly Celebrated, Last Night.

The third anniversary of Excelsior Lodge, No. 443, I. O. G. T., was appropriately celebrated at its rooms,
last evening.

There was a large and enthusiastic gathering of Good Templars present and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

Among the lodges represented were Goshen Lodge, of Goshen, Triumph Lodge, of State Hill, Orange Trust Lodge, of Middletown, and several delegates from Sullivan county lodges.

After the close of the business meeting a banquet was served in the supper room. A number of interesting speeches were made after the supper.

The visitors were made to feel perfectly at home by the members of Excelsior Lodge, and the ties of Templar friendship were bound closer and firmer than ever before. The occasion will long be remembered by all who were fortunate enough to be present.

ICE GORGE AT PORT JERVIS.

Water Rises to Within a Few Feet of the Bridge, but Finds an Outlet

The ice in the Delaware River broke up for two miles above Port Jervis, yesterday afternoon, and formed a gorge at the lower part of the town.

The water rose suddenly, reaching to within three feet of the Barrett Bridge, but finally found an outlet beneath the ice on the Pennsylvania side of the river.

IT USED TO BE

that the good old family doctor riding horse-back over the country in all sorts of weather, carried in his saddle-bags the few simple medicines with which he combated disease, NOT forgetting Calomel or the Linctus. The remedies were few and if he hadn't the right one he used the next best. Don't say they were good old times. It was an age of substitution, of makeshift in many ways. The busy doctor had scarce time to master his own profession. He was his own druggist, knew little of pharmacy, and his drugs, though the best he could get, would scarce pass inspection in these latter days. Time has charged all that, and the old family doctor has developed into the skilled physician of to-day—master of his profession because devoting himself to it, enabled to do so because the development of Pharmacy has relieved him of the drudgery of preparing and dispensing his own medicines, and in a properly equipped Pharmacy a thousand remedies await his choosing and the little prescription which he writes ensures to the patient the exact remedy required in most efficient form.

Without fear of challenge we claim our Pharmacy to be a type of the very best. It is stocked with the best that science has produced or research has discovered and every part of the globe contributes its quota of drugs, which, in our laboratory, are made into finished and elegant preparations for the sick room. Frequent additions are made to it and it is so complete that there's no need of substitution and every prescription is dispensed exactly as ordered. It is backed up by a carefully guarded business record of 25 years to protect in every way our customers' interests of health and pocket. We write your prescriptions, whether simple or complex.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

MOTHERS, Do You Know that Paregoric, Eastern's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed?

Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle?

Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Pitcher that it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined?

Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense?

Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose?

Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts.

The fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Pitcher is on every wrapper.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

SPILLED THE FURNITURE.

A Frightened Horse Makes a Dash
Through West Main Street.

Yesterday afternoon a horse belonging to Messrs. S. N. McCarter & Son, while standing in front of a residence on West Main street, near Walkill avenue, became frightened at an electric car, and as its owner was not at hand to control it, the animal started to run away. The wagon was loaded with furniture, which was scattered along the street. The horse ran through Main street to Franklin Square, where it was captured. No damage was done to horse, wagon or furniture.

Ellenville's Gas Works Leased.

The New Era Construction Gas and Fuel Company has leased the Ellenville gas works, with the privilege of purchase and will at once put the works in perfect repair, put in new apparatus and engage in the business of supplying gas for illuminating, cooking and heating purposes.

Last Chance to Buy Mileage Books.

At the close of business to-night all Erie mileage books unsold will be returned to New York. The Erie will continue on sale the ten-trip New York tickets, also the fifty-trip tickets to New York and way stations.

You've No Idea

How nicely Hood's Sarsaparilla hits the needs of the people who feel tired out or run down from any cause. It seems to oil up the whole mechanism of the body so that all moves smoothly and work becomes a delight. If you are weak, tired and nervous, Hood's Sarsaparilla is just what you need. Try it.

Hood's Pills cure liver ill, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, sick headache and indigestion.

For dyspepsia try McMonagle & Rogers' Peppin Essence.
